Honest to Goodness, Indiana. Watch Gilbert run!

Coast-to-Coast for Kids

Press Release: Aug 5, 2015

Illinois - Indiana Border – Ask Gilbert what she likes about Illinois and she raves about trees that provide welcome shade. She also mentions picturesque bridges, historic towns, vast fields of corn, and old grain bins to store it in. Most of all, she praises the kindness of strangers and the welcoming smiles of the people, young and old, she met along the way.

It's been 99 days since Gilbert said goodbye to family and friends in San Jose CA. Day after day, step after step her sight remains focused on meeting her goal of running 4,000 miles for charity in 4 months.

In the 7 states she has crossed during her 2,853 mile trek so far (2,512 miles of these on Route 6), Gilbert has created uncounted new friends – people she hopes to meet on her victory trip home once her coast to coast journey ends in Provincetown MA in late August or early September.

When Gilbert concludes her charity event for disadvantaged children, she will be the first person to run the entire length of Historic Route 6 from Long Beach CA to Provincetown MA.

Gilbert is an extreme-distance runner, musician, author, and gifted photographer (just look at the photos on her FB page). Her coast-to-coast charity run is in support of Washington United Youth Center in Santa Clara County, CA, a non-profit organization providing after-school programs for underserved kids.

Gilbert wishes to extend a special thank you to uncounted companies, organizations and individuals who have contributed to her charity and have welcomed her with meals, lodging, and other support. This generosity provides her with inspiration as she continues her grueling journey day after day.
