

National Iowa Day

Every year we celebrate National Iowa Day on February 8. This day recognizes the Hawkeye State.

#NationallowaDay

National California Day

On February 22nd, National California Day explores the Golden State and the 31st state to enter the Union.

#NationalCaliforniaDay

National Nebraska Day is celebrated every year on April 5. This holiday was created to celebrate Nebraska's history, culture, and people. #NationalNebraskaDay

National Utah Day is observed every year on May 31 and this unofficial holiday allows us to honor the culture and people of this state. Utah is known for its skiing landscapes and Salt Lake City, which is home to the largest saltwater lake in the western hemisphere.

#NationalUtahDay

National Pennsylvania Day on July 20th recognizes the second state to join the Union. Once the home of the temporary capital of the United States in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania is also known as the Keystone State. While the source of the nickname has been forgotten, the meaning is not lost. #NationalPennsylvaniaDay

National Colorado Day On August 1 each year, the state of Colorado comes alive with celebrations for Colorado Day. This annual state holiday commemorates a significant moment in history when Colorado was officially admitted to the Union as the 38th state on August 1, 1876. #NationalColoradoDay

National Connecticut Day: Celebrated annually on August 10
#NationalConnecticutDay

- Recognizes the contributions of the fifth state to join the United States of America
- Promotes CT tourism
- People show their Connecticut pride on social media using #NationalConnecticutDay

Massachusetts on August 17th – the perfect time to celebrate the Bay State's heritage, culture, and natural beauty along Historic U.S. Route 6.

National New York Day is celebrated on September 21. The day honors the Empire State. #NationalNewYorkDay

National Rhode Island Day | OCTOBER 5 Wrapping up the original 13 colonies, National Rhode Island Day on October 5th recognizes the last colony to join the Union. The Ocean State joined the union on May 4, 1776. #NationalRhodeIslandDay

Nevada on October 31st – Last FRIDAY in October to have 3 day weekend

National Ohio Day Celebrated on November 2, this day has been around since the early 2000s. On November 2, 1803, President Thomas Jefferson signed a decree approving the boundaries and constitution of Ohio. #NationalOhioDay

National Indiana Day – November 16 On November 16th, National Indiana Day revs up its engines for the state that's the home of the Indy 500 and Hoosier hospitality, too. Indiana was the 19th state to enter the Union. James Monroe had just defeated Rufus King in the 1816 presidential race to become the 5th President of the United States. #NationalIndianaDay

National Illinois Day is celebrated annually on December 7, and it is a day to commemorate one of the nation's most exquisite states. Did you know that Illinois was the 21st state to join the United States? It is known to be associated with many prominent U.S. politicians in history and is a remarkable Midwest state with many museums, attractions, traditional food, entertainment, and other great local activities. #NationalIllinoisDay